Dear Ed:

Thank you for your letter of 7 May in which you enclosed your birth certificate for our inspection.

This will not be a valid birth certificate for application of a passport since it contains no date of filing. A birth certificate must have been filed within six months of time of birth to be valid.

If this information is not possible for you to obtain, please have a birth affidavit form executed by one of your parents or someone who has known you for at least twenty years to substantiate date of birth. An affidavit form is enclosed for your convenience.

Sincerely,

Bill
